In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), we have implemented this privacy notice to inform you, our hosts, of the types of data we process about you. We also include within this notice the reasons for processing your data, the lawful basis that permits us to process it, how long we keep your data for and your rights regarding your data.

This notice applies to current and former hosts.

A) DATA PROTECTION PRINCIPLES

Under GDPR, all personal data obtained and held by us must be processed according to a set of core principles. In accordance with these principles, we will ensure that:

- a) processing is fair, lawful and transparent
- b) data is collected for specific, explicit, and legitimate purposes
- c) data collected is adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary for the purposes of processing
- d) data is kept accurate and up to date. Data which is found to be inaccurate will be rectified or erased without delay
- e) data is not kept for longer than is necessary for its given purpose
- f) data is processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of personal data including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction or damage by using appropriate technical or organisation measures
- g) we comply with the relevant GDPR procedures for international transferring of personal data, however we do not transfer employees data internationally.

B) TYPES OF DATA HELD

We keep several categories of personal data on our host in order to carry out effective and efficient processes. We keep this data in a personnel file relating to each host and we also hold some of this data within our computer systems.

Specifically, we hold the following types of data:

E) SPECIAL CATEGORIES OF DATA

Special categories of data are data relating to your:

- a) health
- b) race
- c) ethnic origin
- d) political opinion
- e) religion
- f) genetic and biometric data.

We carry out processing activities using special category data:

- a) for the purposes of equal opportunities monitoring
- b) to determine reasonable adjustments
- c) to ensure correcting matching of student to host

Most commonly, we will process special categories of data when the following applies:

- a) you have given explicit consent to the processing
- b) we must process the data in order to carry out our legal obligations
- c) we must process data for reasons of substantial public interest
- d) you have already made the data public.

F) FAILURE TO PROVIDE DATA

Your failure to provide us with data may mean that we are unable to fulfil our requirements for entering into a contract of with you. This could include being unable to offer you students to host.

G) CRIMINAL CONVICTION DATA

We will only collect criminal conviction data where it is appropriate given the nature of your role and where the law permits us. This data will usually be collected at the recruitment stage, however, may also be collected during your time as a host. We use criminal conviction data to determine your suitability, or your continued suitability for the role. We rely on the lawful basis of our legitimate interests to process this data.

H) WHO WE SHARE YOUR DATA WITH

Employees within our company who have responsibility for recruitment, administration of payment and contractual benefits and the carrying out performance related procedures will have access to your data which is relevant to their function. All employees with such responsibility have been trained in ensuring data is processing in line with GDPR.

Data is shared with third parties for the following reasons:

1. For the administration of payroll (bank details)
2. Completion of DBS checks

We may also share your data with third parties for other reasons to comply with a legal obligation upon us. We have a data processing agreement in place with such third parties to ensure data is not compromised. Third parties must implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security of your data.

If we have to share your information with bodies outside the EEA we would have asked for your consent to do so. This would be for the purposes of student allocation and visa application of the student. Please see our privacy policy for more on cross border data sharing.

I) PROTECTING YOUR DATA

We are aware of the requirement to ensure your data is protected against accidental loss or disclosure, destruction and abuse. We have implemented processes to guard against such.

J) RETENTION PERIODS

We only keep your data for as long as we need it for, which will be at least for the duration of your hosting with us though in some cases we will keep your data for a period after your hosting has ended. Some data retention periods are set by the law. Retention periods can vary depending on why we need your data, as set out below:

Record	Statutory Retention Period
Children/young adults	Until the child reaches 21
Retirement Benefits Schemes	6 years from the end of the scheme year
Statutory Maternity Pay (calculations, certificates, medical evidence)	3 years after the end on the tax year in which the period ends

K) AUTOMATED DECISION MAKING

Automated decision making means making decision about you using no human involvement e.g. using computerised filtering equipment. No decision will be made about you solely on the basis of automated decision making (where a decision is taken about you using an electronic system without human involvement) which has a significant impact on you.

L) HOST RIGHTS

You have the following rights in relation to the personal data we hold on you:

- a) the right to be informed about the data we hold on you and what we do with it;
- b) the right of access to the data we hold on you. More information on this can be found in the section headed “Access to Data” below and in our separate policy on Subject Access Requests”;
- c) the right for any inaccuracies in the data we hold on you, however they come to light, to be corrected. This is also known as ‘rectification’;
- d) the right to have data deleted in certain circumstances. This is also known as ‘erasure’;
- e) the right to restrict the processing of the data;
- f) the right to transfer the data we hold on you to another party. This is also known as ‘portability’;
- g) the right to object to the inclusion of any information;
- h) the right to regulate any automated decision-making and profiling of personal data.

More information can be found on each of these rights in our separate policy on data protection policy – Host Families under GDPR.

M) CONSENT

Where you have provided consent to us to use of your data, you also have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. This means that we will stop processing your data.

N) MAKING A COMPLAINT

If you think your data rights have been breached, you are able to raise a complaint with the Information Commissioner (ICO). You can contact the ICO at Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF or by telephone on 0303 123 1113 (local rate) or 01625 545 745.
